Hello Larry: I want to express my appreciation on my behalf (and N. who found it very informative) and on I.'s behalf for all your efforts today. Although a settlement was not reached, you certainly worked hard to try and get us all to agree.

When A. approached me about a mediation by videoconference, I was not enthusiastic and frankly agreed only because I did not have much expectation of settlement so didn't have much to lose. Having participated, I realize my preconception was probably wrong in this case. B. D.
